

ASPIRANTS FOR SENATE

No One Appears Against Senator J. W. Daniel.

NOTICE MUST BE FILED

There will be No Necessity for Primary for United States Senator This Year—First to Take Place in September, 1905.

United States Senator John W. Daniel will be declared by the State Democratic Committee the candidate of the party for Senator, unless some other aspirant files written notice of his candidacy with State Chairman J. Taylor Ellison to-day or tomorrow. So far no one has been mentioned as a candidate for the Senate against Senator Daniel, whose re-nomination and re-election are assured already. Certainly unless some other aspirant appears before Thursday night Senator Daniel will be declared the nominee, unless he has himself failed to file such notice. There will then be no necessity for a primary for United States Senator this year.

THE FIRST TRIAL.
The first trial of the primary plan for the choice of a Democratic nominee will therefore be had on the first Thursday in September, 1905, at which time a candidate to succeed Senator Martin is to be chosen. Candidates must file notice of candidacy with the State chairman before the first Thursday in June, 1905. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes for Senator, whether such number be a majority of the whole vote or not, shall be declared the nominee of the party.

The chairman of the counties and cities comprise a State Senatorial District (except when a single county or city comprises a district, in which case the county or city committee shall act) shall decide upon what date and between what hours the primary election is to be held throughout the district for State Senators, leaving to the respective county and city committees the appointment of judges and clerks to conduct the election. The chairman are required to give at least sixty days' notice in Democratic papers of the district of the time at which senatorial primaries shall be held and shall receive notice of their candidacy. Where only one candidate files notice he shall be declared the nominee.

FOR HOUSE OF DELEGATES.
Primaries for the nomination of candidates for the House of Delegates and for county and city officers shall be under the direction and regulation of the county and city committees. When a legislative district embraces two counties or a county and a city, the chairman of the two counties or the city and county, the chairman of the Democratic committees shall arrange all matters pertaining to the election and shall hold on the same day throughout the district. No time limit is fixed in the party plan for filing notices of candidacy for the House and for the county and city officers, but the date of such primaries, Primaries must be held, however, and they must be viva voce, and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes, whether the nominee or not, shall be declared the nominee. When only one candidate appears he shall be declared the nominee without the formality of an election.

WOMAN GRADUATED AT COLUMBIAN LAW SCHOOL

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—The feature of the graduating exercises of the Law Department of the Columbian University to-night was the conferring of the degree of Doctor of Civil Law on Mrs. Emma Roba Bailey, of Georgia, the first woman to receive this degree from the University. The determination to confer the degree on Mrs. Bailey aroused such opposition among the members of the class that the majority at one time decided not to accept their degrees. The only one, however, who protested to the Law Department was the class, which remained away and thus failed to receive a degree, although he qualified for it.

MAY NOT BE HARMONIOUS

Republican Ohio Convention Meets To-day.

WILL ENDORSE ROOSEVELT

There Will Be No Disagreement on National Issues, but Some Sharp Contests Are Looked for in State Affairs.

(By Associated Press.)
COLUMBUS, O., June 2.—The indications to-night are that the Republican State Convention here to-morrow and Thursday will not be such a harmonious ratification meeting as was expected. While there will be no opposition as to the endorsement of President Roosevelt, Senator Hanna and others, and no difference on national issues, there are differences of opinion on State questions, and very animated contests for places on the State ticket, except for Governor, Auditor of State, Attorney-General and members of the Board of Public Works.

After the conference to-night it was conceded that at least two of the five proposed constitutional amendments were beaten. Senators Hanna and Foraker and other Republican leaders arrived here to-day and Thursday will be such a harmonious ratification meeting as was expected. While there will be no opposition as to the endorsement of President Roosevelt, Senator Hanna and others, and no difference on national issues, there are differences of opinion on State questions, and very animated contests for places on the State ticket, except for Governor, Auditor of State, Attorney-General and members of the Board of Public Works.

Both Hanna and Foraker, it was disclosed, had been in the city for some time, and they were discussing the proposed constitutional amendments. Certain circumstances have given general credence to the report that Senator Hanna will not take much part in naming the ticket, and that Mr. Foraker will be the most important factor in the nominations. It is conceded that Senator Hanna has already named the head of the State ticket, and it is believed that he favors ex-Congressman M. M. Boonhman, of Bryan, for Governor, while Cox favors ex-Senator W. G. Harding, of Marion. The only opponent of Myron T. Herrick for the gubernatorial nomination who has not withdrawn is Albert Douglas, of Chillicothe, and at headquarters to-night he said the delegates of the Eleventh Congressional District would be relieved from their instructions, so that Herrick will be nominated on Thursday for Governor without opposition. With such deference to Senator Hanna's preference for Governor, the Senator insisted that he would not interfere in the contests for minor places.

THREATENED STRIKE OF SMALL PROPRIETORS

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 2.—The threatened strike of marine engineers here reached quite small proportions today, only about a dozen river tug haws being tied up this far. A feature of the strike to-day was the revoking of the license of the Morgan, a tugboat owned by the Morgan, by the United States local steamboat inspectors on the ground that Truitt had not given the owners the three days' notice of resignation required, and that by refusing to work his engine while on duty he had clearly violated the requirements of his license.

REMARKABLE OFFER TO WILLIAMSBURG

Plan to Publish a Magazine There on a Large Scale.
Mr. Fred E. Bacheller, of Lawrence, Mass., appeared before the Business Men's Association of Williamsburg with an extraordinary proposition. His plan is to start a literary magazine on a large scale, to be published at Williamsburg, and he proposed to the meeting that he and his associates would put up $250,000 if the business men would put up $50,000. He would create and publish a literary illustrated magazine, the peer of any in the land, and in doing so at Williamsburg to secure the historic prestige of that city and the forward movement of the Jamestown Exposition. Mr. Bacheller, who is easily mollified with such plans, outlined a comprehensive plan and talked business right from the jump. He offered to put up $25,000 at once if the Williamsburg people would put up $5,000, and continue to put up $5 for every one subscribed to the magazine. The maximum of $200,000 was in operation. Mr. Bacheller secured an option on the Williamsburg Gazette, and in case the scheme pans out will take over that paper.
